In This Is Not My Hat, a tiny fish tells the reader on the first page that he is a thief. The blue bowler hat on his head belongs to a much bigger fish. The little fish is boasting. He believes he has gotten away with it because he is clever and the big fish was asleep and won't notice his hat is missing.

This Is Not My Hat is a companion piece to Jon Klassen's earlier I Want My Hat Back, only it takes place underwater instead of in a forest; and the story is told from the point of view of the thief and not the, er, victim. The end result, however, is pretty much the same.
